

Democratic Donors to Liberal Political Causes

These Democratic donors have contributed to committees and organizations that lobbied state and federal governments for enactment of liberal legislation. Contributions were also earmarked for Democratic candidates running for federal, state and local elections.

Political conviction, action and money – these contributors possess all three attributes and are active participants in the political process. The support Pro-Choice, Human Rights, Women’s Rights, Environmental Conservation and many more liberal issues. Moral, ethical and politically conscious contributors who give because they care.
